Family Name

hereby, freely and without coercion, waive any rights that may accrue to me, or to my dependants, on the basis of the British Nationality Act 1981, British common law or natural justice as a result of my ordinary residence in Bermuda for the purpose of employment in Bermuda on a work permit. With respect to my permission to reside and work in Bermuda I declare that I have read and understood section 7A of the Bermuda Immigration and Protection Act 1956, which states:

“(1) A grant to a person shall not, except to the extent, if any, expressed in the grant, confer upon him any right, or ground or support any hope, claim or expectation which he may assert—

(a) to or of any extension or renewal of the right or rights expressed in the grant; or

(b) to or of the award of any right or rights other than the right or rights so expressed.

(2) In subsection (1), “grant” means a certificate, licence, permit or other permission (whether so called or by any other name) given or issued to a person under any provision of this Act.’”
